DOVER ADULT LEARNING CENTER NEWSLETTER

A Message From the Director

Deanna Strand

As only the fourth executive director in the history of the Dover Adult Learning Center, I have always recognized the foundation built by my predecessors and the importance of preserving their legacy.

So, it would be hard to image a more fitting 50th anniversary celebration than to see more than 150 current and former board members, staff, volunteers and community supporters gathered on the lawn of the McConnell Center to mark the occasion.

The highlight of the event was the presentation of a lifetime achievement award to Minnett Induisi, who has been a teacher, counselor, advisor and friend to countless individuals in her more than 40 years with the center.

The award was lovingly presented by Warren Dowaliby, who earned his GED at DALC to be able to work at the Strafford County House of Corrections. He would rise through the ranks to become superintendent in his nearly 30-year career.

Dowaliby said Minnett is a godsend to all the inmates that were there, that needed help, wanted help and accepted her help.

U.S. Congressman Chris Pappas said while the work of DALC has changed over the last 50 years, it is as essential as it has ever been to meet the needs of Dover and the surrounding towns.

As a Friend of the Center your enduring support through the years has been critical to helping us meet our mission, year after year, now and in the future. Thanks you.
